

Why should satellite be treated any different than regular airwave stations? Or is it just another way for you reps to raise more money? You reps are always finding ways to fleece business in this country. It is legal protection money. Let xm report anything they want in the interest of the listeners.rod